

ANCESTRY DAY
BALTZER MEYER HISTORICAL SOCIETY
AUGUST 18, 2024
FROM NOON TILL 4 PM

Free use of the Library for the day to research your family tree.

Tours of the History Center to see our collection of artifacts.

Tour of the Harrold One Room School House @ 2:30. p.m.

Demonstration of twining rugs, a very old weaving technique.

See how you can help us by becoming a volunteer.

The Koker Family will share with us the roles they reenact, what life was like for men and women during the French and Indian War. Bill Koker will portray a 60 th Royal American Grenadier, Lauren Koker, will represent a British camp follower (ie Washer Woman) from the same time period. Nathaniel Koker will be an 18 th century toddler terror in a white dress.

Light Refreshments served.

Free to the Public

Baltzer Meyer Historical Society

642 Baltzer Meyer Pike, Greensburg, PA 15601

baltzermeyer.com   724-836-6915

Donation appreciated